Update Your Beneficiaries

Have you made sure that your beneficiary information is correct and up-to-date? People's lives change and so do their financial plans, so take a few minutes to make sure we have your current beneficiary information. Sometimes people don't know the Social Security Number of their beneficiary(s) when they first sign up for Ohio DC, if that was the case for you, take a look at the form here, print it off, take it home, fill it out and send it back to the address on page two and you'll be all set.

The Latest Edition of the Focus Newsletter is Available

Ohio DC is here to help you to be more informed and better prepared for life in retirement. Our Focus Newsletter is put together quarterly and addresses topics that will help guide you along the path to retirement income security. Our latest installment is now available on the website and you can read it here. Topics this time around include:

- "Be Your Own Hero," (In terms of retirement planning and saving)
- Investing During Turbulent Times
- Retirement Savings and Finances for Women

Have You Increased Your Retirement Savings Deferrals for 2017?

Everyone wants to have a comfortable retirement, even if they haven't thought too much about it. To do that, you have to start saving early and over time, increase the amount you are saving. One of the best ways to do that is to sign up for our SMarT Plan, which allows you to automatically increase your retirement savings deferrals annually. Learn more about and enroll in, the SMarT Plan here.

Financial Fitness: Collective Investment Trust (CIT)

An investment vehicle similar to a US mutual fund, but that is available only to qualified retirement plans, such as 401(k) plans and governmental plans.

Time for an Account Check Up?

Since it's the time of year to do your tax returns and think of your financial situation, it is a great time for an account checkup. Call an Account Executive at 877-644-6457 to discuss your account and review your asset allocation.
