

OHIO DEFERRED COMPENSATION PROGRAM (Ohio DC)

Procedures to Determine Qualified Status Of Domestic Relations Orders and to Administer Distributions Pursuant to Qualified Orders

GENERAL PROCEDURES AND POLICIES REGARDING THE ADMINISTRATION OF QUALIFIED DOMESTIC RELATIONS ORDERS:

1. General Information: Ohio DC has the authority to determine whether a domestic relations order (“Order”) is a qualified domestic relations order (“QDRO”). Copies of each Order relating to the Ohio DC Plan (“Plan”) should be forwarded immediately to Ohio DC along with any associated correspondence relative to the Order. All pertinent documentation and requests for QDRO information should be addressed to:

Ohio Deferred Compensation Program
257 East Town Street Suite 400
Columbus, Ohio 43215-4623
Attn: Ohio DC QDRO Compliance Team
Phone: (614) 466-7245
Fax: (614) 728-2601

2. Review of “Certified” DROs that Purport to be QDROs Under the Ohio Public Employees Deferred Compensation Plan of Ohio DC: Upon initial receipt of a certified DRO that purports to be a QDRO, Ohio DC will review the order to determine its qualified status as a QDRO in accordance with federal law. During this qualification review period, the plan administrator will separately account for the alternate payee’s assigned portion of the benefits in accordance with Section 414(p)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, in order to prevent payment of such benefits to the plan participant.

3. Notification of Rejected Orders: Once Ohio DC reviews the Order, the Plan Administrator will notify the Participant, each Alternate Payee (or his/her designated representative), in writing, of the determination as to the qualified status of the Order. If the Order is rejected, the notification letter will include the reasons why the Order failed to qualify. The purpose of this letter is to assist in expediting the QDRO approval process.

4. Notification of Approved Orders (The “Interpretation Letter”): If the Order is deemed to qualify as a QDRO, the Plan Administrator will notify the parties regarding the Order’s approval as a QDRO and will distribute an “Interpretation Letter” to all parties setting forth how the Plan Administrator will interpret the terms and provisions of the QDRO. The Interpretation Letter will state in clear terms the rights and entitlements of the alternate payee.

5. No Retroactive Assignment of Gains or Losses is Permitted. In addition to other requirements and limitations imposed by federal law, Ohio DC does not permit retroactive assignment of gains or losses in a QDRO. The QDRO can provide the alternate payee with a dollar amount or a percentage of the participant's account balance as of a specified date. By retroactive, Ohio DC means that gains or losses can only be calculated as of the date that the plan administrator actually "segregates" the called-for amounts from the participant's accounts into a separate account for the alternate payee.

Important Note: Please see language in paragraph #7 of attached sample QDRO.

6. Segregation of Participant's Benefits During QDRO Qualification

Determination Period: Pursuant to section 414(p)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, during any period in which the issue of whether a "certified" (ie., signed by the judge and filed stamped by the court) domestic relations order is a qualified domestic relations order is being determined, the Plan Administrator shall separately account for the amounts which would have been payable to the alternate payee during such period if the order had been determined to be a qualified domestic relations order. In other words, the Plan Administrator shall separately account for the called-for portion of the participant's benefits during the period in which it is determining whether the Order is a QDRO in order to prevent the Participant from receiving such benefits, as follows:

- (a) With respect to a Participant who is receiving a monthly payment under the Plan, the amounts which would have been payable to an Alternate Payee (on a prospective basis) shall be separately accounted for.
- (b) With respect to a Participant who has an account balance with Ohio DC, the amounts which would have been payable to an Alternate Payee shall be separately accounted for. Amounts will be taken proportionately from each Investment Fund in which the Participant's account is invested. During this QDRO determination period, and with respect to the Participant's total account balance, the Participant will still be permitted to direct his/her own investments in accordance with the terms of the Plan. However, he/she may be restricted from making withdrawals, loans, etc. in accordance with federal law and these written QDRO procedures.

7. Review of "Draft" Orders: The Plan Administrator will review a draft QDRO before it is executed by the court. Please feel free to have your QDRO pre-approved before you have the judge sign it. You may send the QDRO to the following address:

Ohio Deferred Compensation Program
257 East Town Street Suite 400
Columbus, Ohio 43215-4623
Attn: Ohio DC QDRO Compliance Team
Phone: (614) 466-7245
Fax: (614) 728-2601

Important Note: Please be sure to submit your QDRO on a timely basis for review and approval. There may be adverse consequences for the alternate payee should the participant retire or die before the Plan Administrator receives and approves a certified copy of the QDRO.

8. Ambiguity in Domestic Relations Order: In the event of an ambiguity in a DRO that would otherwise constitute a QDRO, the Plan Administrator may resolve the ambiguity by written agreement of the Participant and Alternate Payee and/or their legal counsel.

9. Scope of Discussions with the Plan Administrator Regarding QDRO Fairness and Equitability Issues: The Plan Administrator will avoid discussing fairness or equitability issues regarding the division of benefits under a QDRO. It is the responsibility of the parties' legal counsel to negotiate the substantive provisions of a QDRO. The Plan Administrator will limit its review to the technical requirements for QDROs as set forth under ERISA and Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code.

10. Death of the Plan Participant before a QDRO is Approved by the Plan Administrator: The Plan Administrator will not consider a QDRO applicable for a specific case until a certified, executed copy is received by the Plan Administrator. If the participant dies before a certified copy of the QDRO has been received by the Plan Administrator, the alternate payee may be entitled to a portion of the participant's benefits as specified in the QDRO.

Important Note: If a QDRO is submitted after the death of a Plan participant, please be sure to include a certified, executed copy of the Divorce Decree and Separation Agreement.

11. Obtaining Participant Information from the Plan Administrator: In order to obtain information regarding the status of a certain Plan participant relative to his/her account, the requesting party must furnish the Plan Administrator with a written, signed release from the participant. Once the Plan Administrator receives the proper release, the requesting party can receive the following information regarding the status of the Plan participant including but not limited to:

- (a) Status of Plan participant, whether active, inactive, currently in payout, etc.
- (b) Current account balance information
- (c) Account balance and activity information as may be necessary to determine the marital estate
- (d) If applicable, the form of benefit distribution option elected by the participant
- (e) Available distribution options

Your request for specific participant information should be addressed to:

Ohio Deferred Compensation Program
257 East Town Street Suite 400
Columbus Ohio 43215-4623

Important Note: The Plan Administrator will only address the actual questions that are asked in the release, so please be specific.
